

Tuskegee Institute Middle School

Happy Birthday Dr. Seuss!

February 27- March 02, 2012

Monday February 27th The Artist and Author Day

- Rewrite your favorite Dr. Seuss story. Each homeroom will choose a representative for the class. The student with the best story wins a prize and his/her story published in the Tuskegee News. (Writing) Due on Wednesday.
- Art contest begins: create a drawing or 3-D model of Dr. Seuss or a character from a Dr. Seuss book. A prize will be rewarded for the top three creations. (Ms. Williams will coordinate interested students). Due on Friday.

Tuesday February 28th Good 'Seuss' Deeds Day

- Donate your favorite Dr. Seuss book to the TIMS library. Dr. Seuss movies can also be donated.

Wednesday February 29th Seuss Advocate Day

- Parents read their favorite Dr. Seuss book to classes. Each class is asked to invite at least two parents to read to students.
- Stories are due to Mrs. Wright by 11:00 a.m. (Refer to Monday)
- Write an Ad or commercial convincing your school mates to read. (Groups or individual students). Five groups/students will be chosen to perform their Ad over the PA during morning announcements beginning March 5th. (Writing) Due on Friday.

Thursday March 1st Dress like Dr. Seuss or Character Day

- A class representative will be chosen by the teacher or class to dress like Dr. Seuss or a character from a Dr. Seuss book. Students are to be groomed here at school rather than coming to school dressed. The best costume wins a prize.

Friday March 2nd Dr. Seuss Celebration

- Green Cake & Ice Cream
- Art due at 11:00 a.m. to be judged at 1:00 p.m. Winner announced during evening announcements.
- Ads will be performed in front of judges at 1:30 p.m.

*"Today you are You, that is truer than true.
There is no one alive who is Youer than You." -Dr. Seuss*

